

Weekly News

Announcements & Reminders

Progress reports & Report cards will be coming home in your child's binder. Please sign the blue report card where it says "parent signature" in the second grading period (just like you signed the first grading period at conferences). Then please place it back in the envelope and send it back to school. The attached progress report is your copy to keep at home ☺

Mrs. Schwab & Ms. Riches

Date: 1/16-1/19

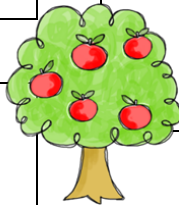

Phonograms

oi, oy, n, y, ow, ai, ay, m, qu, i

Spelling words

ten, tan, tin, ton, he

A Peek at Our Week

Handwriting: We will be reviewing the following double phonograms: ee, sh, th, ow, oi, oy, ai, and ay. Our new double letter phonograms this week are ou, aw, and au.

Reading: We are reviewing Spalding spelling rule 6: y not i is used at the end of English words. Aw and au make the same sound. Au is used at the beginning of a word and aw can be used at the beginning or end.

Poem to memorize: 17

Write a one then a seven,
Its 17 lets go to heaven.

Math: We will be writing our own addition sentences and learning how to write 17.

Birthdays!

Noah 1/18