Announcements & Reminders

Next Friday, 9/1, will be our first phonogram test. The phonograms that your child will be tested on are a, c, d, f, g, o, s, qu, and b. On Thursday we will give a pre-test and it will be sent home in your child's homework binder. I won't be entering your child's grade into the gradebook until the following week as he/she may miss several. Not only are they having to learn the sounds but also how to write the letters which is a lot of new information at the beginning of kindergarten.

Each week we are going to practice a poem all week that your child will memorize. Starting next Friday I will pull each child to see if they can recite the poem for the week for points. See the poem below to help them at home.

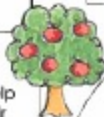

Starting next week we will have a student of the week. They will get to fill a poster out about themselves and bring in show and tell. I will let you know the Friday before the week if it is your child.

A Peek at Our Week

Handwriting: Please continue to help your students practice writing their names at home.

Poem to memorize: Mr. One stands straight and tall. One straight line and that is all.

Math: We are working on learning to write and recognize numbers 1 through 10 and the following shapes: square, triangle, rectangle, circle, oval and diamond.
