In other subjects, students will be talking about a variety of topics. In Science, students will be discussing plants. The students will learn the parts of a plant and what the parts do for the plant.

February is a busy month. The class will have a Valentine's Day party on February 14th. Students must bring a Valentine for everybody in the classroom. I will not hand out a class list due to privacy laws. The children simply write from and their name on the Valentine. We have a total of 20 students in the class. I will need donations of cookies, little cupcakes, cheese, crackers, and fruit for the party. All
