

Mrs. Larsen's
4th Grade Class
Weekly Newsletter

Week 10: EARLY RELEASE AT 12:30 ON WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY, AND FRIDAY.

Parent Teacher Conferences on Wednesday and Thursday.

This week we have been working on fragmented and rambling sentences.

In Math the kids have been studying fractions of a dollar, reading fractions and mixed numbers from a number line, and building their multiplication facts.

In Science the rain forest has been the topic of interest for the week.

In Social Studies we have been studying the landforms that are depicted from the map grid of California and North America.

The kids have been rehearsing really hard for their upcoming Grammar Play. Look for the date of their performance.

Phonograms for the week.

rh, ge, aigh, s, e, i, x, y, ow, er, ng, ea, aw, or, ck, ew, ui, ph, ie, p

Poem of the week.

My Dog Chewed Up My Homework
by Bruce Lansky

I'm glad to say my homework's done. I finished it last night. I've got it right here in this box. It's not a pretty sight. My dog chewed up my homework. He slobbered on it, too. So now homework's ripped to shreds and full of slimy goo. It isn't much to look at, but I brought it anyway. I'm going to dump it on your desk if I don't get an A.

Quote of the week

