

Mrs. Larsen's
4th Grade Class
Weekly Newsletter

Week 11: EARLY RELEASE AT 12:30 FRIDAY.

This week we have been working on finding the *main idea, sentence construction, and how to write paragraphs and letters.

Close reading is important to reading comprehension so we had fun learning about *Jim Thorpe and Rachel Carson.

In Math the children have been studying Reading an inch scale to the nearest fourth and are preparing to *add and subtract decimal numbers.

In Science we are learning how to become a scientist by how to make an hypothesis and what goes into *research.

In Social Studies we have studied the *physical map of Canada.

The Grammar Play will have two performances. A matinee and an evening performance
*Thursday, November 2nd.

Phonograms for the week.

er, ea, si, ee, ie, ar, or, t, ti, c, t, p, f, v, s, x, ce, gi, our, di

Quote of the week.

"The hardest moments are a calling for something greater."

