

Ms. Olson's

5th and 6th Grade

Week of January 22nd

Tutoring. Permission slips have been sent home for students who may participate in math tutoring this spring. Tutoring will be on Monday and Thursday afternoons (during last period).

Declaration of Independence Quote. Due Feb. 2nd)

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

Writing. Word Choice: Using Figurative Language

Science. Physical Science: Gravity

Social Studies: Ancient Egypt

Coming Soon- Opera is coming to Franklin.

Franklin students in grades fourth through sixth will be learning about opera from Mrs. Franklin. They will be writing and performing their own original opera!

Spelling List. (For the week of January 8th) differ different provide provision according already attention education direct director purpose common diamond together convention increase manner feature article serve service injure injury effect distribute general tomorrow consider again against

Phonograms. (For the week of January 8th)

a e i o u d or oo eo th au ch rh oi ow pn cu ear igh augh

5th Grade Math (Week of January 8th)

- Finding a Fraction to Complete a Whole
- Cumulative Assessment 11
- Using Letters to Identify Geometric Figures
- Estimating Arithmetic Answers
- Benchmark Test 2

6th Grade Math (Week of January 8th)

- Polygons
- Cumulative Assessment 11
- Adding 3 or More Fractions
- Writing Mixed Numbers as Improper Fractions
- Polygons
- Benchmark Test 2

Multiage classrooms utilize an organizational structure in which children of different ages (at least a two-year span) and ability levels are grouped together, without dividing them or the curriculum into steps labeled by grade designation (Gaustad, 1992).

Christmas Poem

The funniest face looked out at me
From a silver ball
On the Christmas Tree!

At first I thought
It was Santa's elf.
But I looked again and
It was just myself!

