Our new poem for Literature is on this paper to the right.

In Reading, we will be continuing to learn reading comprehension by reading short stories that have questions with them.

In Math, we are working on liquid measurement and weight measurement.

In Science, we are continuing to study our solar system.

In Social Studies, we are learning about Arizona resources.

For any work your students do, they need to be writing neatly and legibly, with letters on the baseline. If we cannot read your student's handwriting, they will need to rewrite their work.

If you would like for your student to use the grammarly app, it is free at www.grammarly.com

Winds of March

Winds of March, we welcome you,
There is work for you to do.
Work and play and blow all day,
Blow the winter cold away.

With cold, flu, and virus season upon us, we need more Kleenex and antibacterial wipes for our classroom. If possible, would you please send in the softer Kleenex or Puffs and Clorox Pacific Coconut Wipes (I am allergic to the lemon and pine Clorox wipes.)

Please make sure that your student writes his or her name on their homework papers!
