Class Discipline:

For not following class procedures (like talking too much in class, blurting out answers or questions or not raising their hands to be called on), students will receive a verbal warning. If another warning is needed, their name will be written on the whiteboard. A second warning is a checkmark and 5 minutes off of recess; two checkmarks is 10 minutes off of recess and possibly a call to parents.

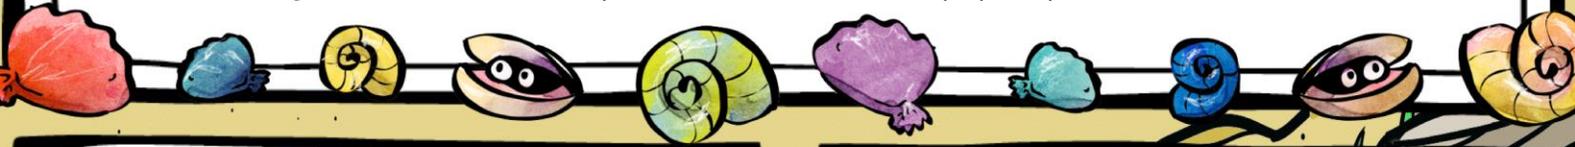

Students can earn their names off the whiteboard and earn their checkmarks off the board for good behavior.

If you have anything beachy around your home that you don't want anymore, we'd love to use it in our classroom! Thank you!

Parents, please make sure your students are writing their letters sitting on the base line, as well as making their letters s, p, and r the same size as their other short letters.

Just a reminder: I am now taking off ½ point for capital letters used in the wrong places (like at the beginning and middle of spelling words), and students will be required to rewrite any papers that I cannot read because of no spaces between words or sloppy handwriting.
