

Mrs. Kimball's Kindergarten - Feb.1st to Feb.5th

Hello Parents,

We are off to a start on Spelling Units. Please look for a new spelling list every Monday. The students will need to study this list at home. The test will be on Friday.

Please also work with your child each night on the phonograms. This practice will help them to decode words and face reading with confidence and success

Please remind your child the importance of good study habits - doing homework and studying their phonogram cards each night.

We sent a new calendar out last week. This is an updated version , so be sure to check out the changes.
Thank you!

Please talk with your child about the importance of wearing their mask the Right way! Thank you!

In class this week:

Spalding - Review of all phonograms. This includes 2 letter phonograms ch, ee, sh, th, wh, oo, ai/ay, ng, ph, kn, ar, ow. No NEW phonograms this week.

Reading - We will be starting our first reader, "Mom and Dad". Please take time to read each night with your child.

Handwriting -Practicing with your student writing all letters.

Language Arts - Begin to look at missing letters in words. We will start with beginning and ending sounds and using our spelling words in sentences and in our reading.

Math - We will continue working on addition - one to one coorespondance, order and money.

Social Studies / Science; We are going to look at habitats and where they are locatd on a map or globe.
