Dear Parents,

Happy Thanksgiving week! We will be in school this week for 1 ½ days. Monday we will review phonograms and letter names, numbers, colors and shapes. Tuesday is a half day. We will do our Turkey art and have Thanksgiving Lunch as a class. Thank you for all you do!

Happy Thanksgiving,

Mrs. Kimball

Review of all Phonograms Aa - Zz

Reading: We will continue to read narratives and informatives. We have also started with our little books. These books will come home. The students need to read and practice with these books. Keep them at HOME! We will also read simple words, phonogram blending and work on reading comprehension.

Handwriting: All alphabet letters > Uppercase and Lowercase.

Language Arts:

We are doing this poem as a class. Many students did not know the poem. This is part of their homework. Please have them work on it each night for around 10 min., along with their other review work.

Leaves are floating
softly down;
Some are red and
some are brown.
The wind goes "swish"
through the air;
When you look back,
There are no leaves there.

Math- Counting and number recognition 1-60, review adding 0 and 1 to a number, numbers that come before and after, pennies, dimes, counting by 10's to 100, clocks, number writing 1-20, patterns, directional words (above, below, between, middle, first, last, etc)..

Social Studies- History of Thanksgiving

Art : Thanksgiving Turkey's

Classroom Needs

Parents : Our classroom needs clorox wipes.

Thank you,
